President Pierce and Senator Douglas—Interesting Reminiscences.

A correspondent of the Chicago Times who traveled in Europe with Stephen A. Douglas, gives some very interesting reminiscences of the past:

Upon my return from Europe with Stephen A. Douglas, in January, 1854, having returned during the previous October, in passing through Washington on my way west, I called at his house in the evening and found him alone. I expressed my regret that the vexed question settled by the Missouri Compromise was again to be disturbed, and said that I feared it would again open the old dispute that had been disposed of by the Compromise of 1850, with which the South is now satisfied, and in which the North was acquiescent. He replied that that was exactly the position assumed by Mr. Pierce and his Cabinet, except by Mr. Davis, Secretary of War, and by Mr. Dobbin, Secretary of the Navy. "But," said Douglas, "the Missouri Compromise is a fraud on the Constitution and the people of the Territories, whose right is to frame their institutions. If a majority of the people of Kansas and Nebraska, after their organization into Territories, are in favor of slavery, why let them have it. But no one believed that any slaveholding State will ever be formed north of 36 degrees 30 minutes. Then, why continue an unconstitutional law upon the statute book?" This was the substance of his argument in favor of his bill.

He then went on to relate his conversation with Mr. Pierce and his Cabinet on the proposed measure of which Mr. Marcy, Secretary of State, was especially violent in his conversation. After the members of the Cabinet had left the room, Mr. Pierce again returned to the subject, and laying his hand affectionately on Douglas' shoulder, said, "Douglas, I implore you not to disturb the Missouri Compromise by introducing your bill, for I can clearly see that it will be the beginning of another sectional agitation, the effect of which I think with terror. Your bill is a very Pandora's box, without the Hope at the bottom;" and then, seeing no evidence in Douglas' face that his purpose was shaken, he added, with emotion, "If I could prevail with you, I would go down on my knees before you." But Douglas was firm and in the end forced the President and his Cabinet, first to acquiesce in, and then to advocate the measure.

Medical Record of the War.

The valuable medical and mortuary records of the War Department were transferred to the fire-proof building on Tenth street, Washington, in December, 1865. During the year official evidence has been furnished from these records of the death or discharge for disability in 55,500 cases. 4,008 monthly reports of sick and wounded, 315 special reports, 598 folio records, and 1,262 hospital muster and pay-rolls have been acquired during the year. The alphabetical registers of the dead, as far as completed, contain the names of 244,747 white soldiers, 29,796 colored soldiers, and 30,204 rebel soldiers.

In the division of surgical records the histories of 45,551 wounded men have been traced out and entered upon the permanent registers. The number thus entered now amounts to 207,941. The histories of the graver injuries, and of those cases in which important operations were performed, are very fully recorded.

32,519 cases of wounds and operations occurring previous to the present system of registration and return of injuries have been compiled, and will be entered upon the permanent registers.

The average annual strength of white troops is represented by the reports at 41,164. The number taken on sick report for diseases, wounds and injuries 122,181, an average of nearly three [illegible] on sick report for each man. The mortality during the year was 1,527. Heavy Ordnance.

In Gen. Grant's report the following interesting paragraphs occur touching the subject of heavy ordnance which the progress of military and naval science now renders indispensable for the purposes of defense:

Smooth-bore cannon of less than eight inches calibre being ineffective against iron-clad war vessels, it has been determined to supersede all such now in the seacoast forts by those of heavier calibre, and by rifled cannon. A Board of Engineer, Ordnance and Artillery Officers, especially appointed to consider the subject of arming the permanent forts, reported that 1,915 pieces of the calibre of 13, 15 and 20 inches for smooth bores, and of 10 and 12 inches for rifles, were required for the permanent fortifications, and should be provided; and their report was approved by the Secretary of War. None of these guns have yet been provided, and there are no existing orders or contracts for heavy cannon. This stoppage of the procurement of heavy cannon has been mainly occasioned by "persistent efforts for some time past by ignorant or designing persons to destroy public confidence in the heavy guns which have been provided by the Ordnance Department of the army and navy."

This subject, as also the experiments which have been made to test the durability and efficiency of these cannon, are stated more fully and in detail in the report of the Chief of Ordnance. The experiments have resulted in establishing the fact that our heavy cast-iron cannon are the cheapest and most effective guns that are possessed by any nation. While this is fully proved so far as regarding the smooth bore heavy guns, and the same results have followed in respect to the rifles, so far as the tests have yet been applied to them, it is not deemed prudent to enter upon the manufacture of these latter to a large extent without the previous trial of a greater number of these guns.

DICKENS.—"Satanella," the New York correspondent of the San Francisco Call, gives the following account of Charles Dickens' first reading a few weeks since in that city:

Dickens gave his first reading on Monday night—the evening before last—at Steinway Hall. Not a seat was to be had except of the speculators. The Hall seats about fifteen hundred, which at two dollars each, netted $3,000; but D. might just as well have $6,000 a night, for speculators hold seats at four and five dollars each, and not a seat can be had for less to any of the four readings comprising his first series. I never saw a more select crowd than listened to him on Monday. All the literati of New York were present, and as he entered he was warmly welcomed. He came in with a nosegay in his button-hole, quite self-possessed, and bowed his acknowledgment of the applause. Then I took a good look at him, for I had not seen him for many years, and he is much altered. He is rather a small man, compactly built, with a mobile countenance, hair well sprinkled with grey now, and is a little bald on the top of his head. His sandy whiskers are John-Bullish all over, and his light goatee is ditto. As for his readings—well, "reading" is not the word for them, and we should say "acting," for he modifies his voice, manner, and facile expression to suit each character, and he has all that he intends to "read" so well by heart that he rarely looks at the book. As for his "readings," they are simply exquisite performances. I had no idea that he was such a good actor. The stage has lost a "star" in him. He would have made a rare comedian. In reading the "Christmas Carol" he was not so effective, because it is a serious production, and yet you would have thought that you had every character before you, from old Scrooge and Marley's ghost down to Tiny Tim. But it was in the comic description of the lawsuits in the "Pickwick Papers" that his humorous power displayed itself, and his acting was perfectly irresistible. I laughed until I cried again. So did everybody else. We all laughed until we cried again. He is an easy, graceful, natural performer, has a voice rich and full, eminently masculine, both in its force and pathos, and has a face that lights up and is full of expression as the fancy of the moment renders it eloquent.

Grant and Sherman.

Among the papers lately transmitted to the House of Representatives by General Grant, is a letter to him from General Sheridan, dated New Orleans, January 25, 1867, in relation to [illegible] in Texas, particularly referring to the [illegible] of the Union men and freedmen in different parts of the State, which he says is truly [illegible]. Government is denounced, freedmen are shot, and Union men persecuted if they have the [illegible] to express their opinion. This letter, General Grant, under date of Headquarters Army of the United States, January 29, 1867, endorses as follows:

Respectfully forwarded to the Secretary of War. Attention is invited to that portion of the within communication which refers to the [illegible] of Union men and freedmen in Texas, and the powerlessness of the military in the present State of affairs to afford them protection. Even the [illegible] effect of the presence of troops is [illegible] and a few days ago a [illegible] was fired upon by citizens of Brownsville. In my opinion, the great number of [illegible] of Union men and freedmen in Texas, not only, as a rule, are unpunished, but [illegible], and constitute practically a state of [illegible], and believing it to be the province and duty of every good Government to afford protection to the [illegible] liberty and property of her citizens, I would recommend the declaration of martial law in Texas to secure these. The necessity for [illegible] any portion of our territory by martial law is deplorable. If resorted to it should be limited in its [illegible], and should leave all local authorities and [illegible] tribunals free and [illegible] until [illegible] their inefficiency or unwillingness to perform their duties. Martial law would give security, or comparatively so, to all [illegible] regard to race, color, or political [illegible] could be continued until society was [illegible] protecting itself or until the State is restored to its full relation with the Union. The [illegible] of martial law to one of the [illegible] warning to all, and, if necessary, can be [illegible] to others.

H. W. [illegible]

[illegible] Committee of Multnomah [illegible] their preparations for [illegible] first act is to publish a call for a County Convention. The day chosen for [illegible] this call was Sunday. That the day [illegible] for holding the Convention was not [illegible], was probably an inadvert[illegible] minor.

[illegible] is very well sustained by the [illegible] of the Committee which accompanies the call. The burden of that address is [illegible] and the position taken is precisely that [illegible] of a Jacobin hostility to property. [illegible] for party purposes, to the [illegible] of the poor against the rich; [illegible] had no property [illegible] in the country other than their bodies. It does [illegible] credit of assuming that they [illegible] the property and capital of the [illegible] and it does the Democrats the [illegible] of supposing that they are a [illegible] who have saved nothing, and who look with [illegible] eyes on the [illegible] in the [illegible] of all [illegible] this is the interpretation of [illegible] such phrases as [illegible] luxury" and "the yeomen [illegible] who earn your bread by hard [illegible] to the [illegible] standing and self-respecting [illegible] and right-thinking of the [illegible] to serve, is the leading [illegible] of the address of this Committee. [illegible] abilities who gets his [illegible] labor and who [illegible] himself [illegible] would consider himself [illegible] thought of so [illegible] They [illegible] following, but they [illegible] appeal to, [illegible].

[illegible] entirely to bonds and [illegible] and "the [illegible] that it [illegible] folly would not be [illegible] which it [illegible] There are two Democratic "lawyers" [illegible] one of whom has been [illegible] to get it published in a [illegible] part of a [illegible] in the United States Senate. [illegible] style of the [illegible] it may be that it was written by this "briefless [illegible] who has a good deal of spare time [illegible] to this [illegible] of composition. [illegible] Democratic Supreme [illegible] decided in many cases that [illegible] cannot be taxed; what [illegible] is there that it would not so decide [illegible] Court is not to be trusted on this question. It has always decided in favor of the "rich [illegible]," and "money-bloated aristocracy." [illegible] Democratic Supreme Court has too often [illegible] the law on the subject, and has established [illegible] to [illegible] all. This may be pretty severe on the [illegible] Democratic Committee of Multnomah [illegible] of [illegible] The progr[illegible] is not at all favorable for the taxation of bonds, and if any [illegible] are cast in the coming election [illegible] that they will contribute to such a result, [illegible] reason to fear that [illegible] will be grievously disappointed in their expectations.

[illegible] can be no more [illegible] proof of the [illegible] of Dem[illegible] than is furnished by [illegible] this. Not only does such an [illegible] and [illegible] nature, but it dis[illegible] or the usual de[illegible] The [illegible] of the [illegible] know or do not know that [illegible] securities are not taxable and cannot be taxed in any event. If they know it, they are guilty of the [illegible] dishonesty in publishing this address; if they do not know it, they would do well to learn something before assuming to [illegible] the public. But it is the rule of the [illegible] of the party to appeal to prejudice and to [illegible] to impose upon ignorance, and this ex[illegible] proves that they do not, in any case, intend to [illegible] from their invariable policy.

Washington Territory Legislature.

The Legislature of Washington Territory adjourned on the 30th January. The usual amount of business was done during the session. An apportionment bill was passed which gives the river region fifteen members in the House, and the Sound fifteen. The apportionment for the river counties is as follows: Stevens county one, Walla Walla six, Yakima and Klikitat one, Skamania one, Clark four, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum one, and Pacific one. No change in Council Districts. An act re-districting the Territory, makes the First Judicial District to consist of Stevens county alone, Chief Justice Hewitt being assigned to that District. The Second Judicial District remains as it is, except that Walla Walla county is added to it. Judge J. E. Wyche is assigned to this District and will hold court at Walla Walla, Vancouver and Olympia. The Third Judicial District remains as before, with C. Ben. Darwin as Judge.

An act was passed changing the time of holding the sessions of the Legislature, which hereafter will convene on the first Monday in October of each alternate year.

A memorial was passed asking for the annexation of Northern Idaho to Washington Territory.

An appropriation of $4,143 80 was made to the Sisters of Charity, of Vancouver, deficiency due for keeping and care of the insane.

An act passed appropriating the Territorial tax of the counties of Lewis and Cowlitz for the years 1868 and 1869 and the balance for 1867, for the repair of that portion of the military road, from Olympia to Monticello, passing through those counties. It appropriates about five thousand dollars.

The Territorial tax was raised from 3½ mills to 4 mills on the dollar.

An appropriation of $2,500 was made towards the completion of the road over the Snoqualmie pass.

Five hundred dollars was appropriated for the removal of obstructions in Cowlitz river.

Eight hundred dollars was appropriated for the removal of obstructions in Chehalis river.

The fees of all the county officers in Walla Walla county were cut down one-half.

A special liquor license law, similar in character to the Oregon law, was passed for the county of Walla Walla.

A new "change of venue law" was passed, which met the opposition of the Judges of the Supreme Court and members of the bar.

Two divorce bills were passed, both of which Governor Moore vetoed, neither of which passed over the veto. This was the only exercise of the veto power by his Excellency.

A pilot bill passed and received the approval of the Governor. It applies only to San Juan de Fuca Straits, Puget Sound, etc., but by its own provisions is a dead letter, as all vessels sailing under the American flag are exempt from pilotage.

A bill to change the location of the Capital from Olympia to Vancouver passed the Council, but died in the hands of a Special Committee of the House. At no time could the bill command over ten votes out of the thirty in the House.

The University matter created considerable stir. The Board of Regents reported severally against the late President of the University, Daniel Bagley. A Special Committee of the House, after a labored investigation, exonerated Mr. Bagley. The House, after a long debate, failed to adopt either report; but directed the Board of Regents to collect all outstanding indebtedness unsecured. The Council Committee found between both the Board and the House Committee, but finally passed the House resolutions of instruction.

A bill providing for holding an election and calling a convention to form a State Constitution was introduced and passed. Under its operation Washington Territory will become the State of Washington in about four years.

A large number of purely local laws were enacted, the major part of them being in the interest of the stock-growing counties of Walla Walla, Stevens, Yakima, and Klikitat.

We obtain the above items from Hon. P. B. Johnson, of Walla Walla.

We were shown a letter yesterday evening, just received by Mr. Gaston, of the Railroad Company, from Senator Williams, in which the efforts of the Senator is pledged to have the Land Grant Act of Congress amended so as to extend the time to the Railroad Company, in compliance with their wishes. Letters to the same effect have also been received from members of Congress in other States—personal friends of Mr. G.

The Lane county Union Convention will be held on the 7th March.

The Record says that Mr. Thatcher w[illegible] just returned from Eugene City, reports plenty of snow there and much stock dying. Feed is becoming scarce, so that it is almost impossible to procure any. Mr. E. S. Morgan, who has just returned from Umpqua, says there is more snow at Eugene than at Roseburg. There is very little snow in the Umpqua.

Nine colored men are now living in New Orleans who assisted in its defense under Jackson. Yet in Copperhead estimation, these patriotic colored men who fought under Jackson and helped to save the country from British dominion, are nothing but "niggers" who should have no rights in a "white man's government!"

The Eugene Journal says that many thousands of sheep in that vicinity begin to sow "the death stare in the eye."

The Union Committee of Marion county will meet at Salem on the 15th inst.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—"Your Troches are too well and favorably known to need commendation.

Hon. CHAS. A. PHELPS,
Pres't Mass. Senate.

"My communication with the world has been very much enlarged by the Lozenge which I now carry always in my pocket; that trouble in my Throat (for which the TROCHES are a specific) having made me often a mere whisperer."

N. P. WILLIS.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places of the Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

CHAS. DICKEN'S READINGS are creating quite a sensation in the Atlantic States, the proceeds of which are so enormously large that the popular author refused the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars to come to San Francisco—and yet the people of Oregon continue to buy their clothing and dry-goods at the best and cheapest house in the State, which, of course, is at KOHN & FISHEL'S

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet card, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink)—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. Negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose, and can be seen in the reception room.

His Honor the Mayor announced the object and purpose of the meeting, whereupon the the following report was received and read by the Clerk:

To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of the city of Portland: Your committee appointed to revise an ordinance to secure a supply of material for public buildings, and repair of streets adjacent to public grounds, and for other purposes, and to levy a special tax therefor, would report that we have had several meetings, but have not been able to finish our work, and would therefore ask to be granted further time to report.

CHAS. S. FECHHEIMER,
R. PORTER,
A. B. HALLOCK,
Committee.

On motion, further time was granted the committee to report.

Mr. Porter stated that he thought the committee could be prepared to report as instructed at the next regular meeting, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Fechheimer stated in substance that it was not certain that the committee could be fully prepared to report at the next meeting, as two of the members had not as yet met with the committee; but that the committee would endeavor to report at that time.

On motion, Councilmen Burch, Besser and Rosenheim were added to the committee.

Mr. Porter moved that the committee meet together for the purpose of finishing a report, at one o'clock Tuesday evening, which prevailed.

Mayor Chapman suggested that there should be a prompt and full attendance of the committee at that time, and that there appeared to be a disposition on the part of some not to appear, but to [illegible] delay.

The Council adjourned.

A SHARP AND [illegible] DODGE.—About two months ago, Jack Allphin, of this city, purchased of a man who represented [illegible] as a resident of Linn county, about 500 lbs. of hams, paying 17c per lb. The man, whose name we think is Osborne, said he was willing to sell this lot a little under the market price, as it was "the last he had," and [illegible] in a hurry to go below. Jack bought them thinking he had made a pretty good trade. The hams were [illegible] into his store room where they remained till a day or two since, when he concluded to start in on [illegible] for the [illegible] in the Mountaineer chop house. [illegible] open he found that a considerable of the inside [illegible] had been dug out with a gouge and its place [illegible] four or five pounds of salt. This, of course, [illegible] that he had been victimized and he began to examine the others. He found that all of them had been treated in a similar manner. The [illegible] had inserted a gouge near the lower end of each ham, taken out from two to four pounds of [illegible] probably to be used for [illegible] filled the cavity with salt, costing not over two cents per pound, and had sold the same for seventeen cents per pound. By [illegible] not less than $1,00 on each ham to say [illegible] of the [illegible] meat taken out. Upon [illegible] we find that the same man commenced operations here, by [illegible] to a grocery merchant of First street, that he had a small lot—a few hundred [illegible] which he would sell cheap rather than spend time in looking around. The grocer nibbled. The next day, [illegible] grocer happening in, the conversation turned on hams, when it came out that he, too, had [illegible] of Osborne, the "last lot" he had, at a little lower figure, to "close out," as the seller said. In the course of a few days, it was found that Osborne had sold lots to several parties, to all, under the market price, [illegible] to each that the lot offered was "the last" he had. Every one of them found the hams filled with salt, as were those bought by Mr. Allphin. In the aggregate, the sharper made probably $600 or $800. Of course, he was [illegible] before any of the victims discovered how they had been bilked. It is little [illegible] that Osborne [illegible] so much for bad practices in trade when such dodges as this and the wool frauds are remembered.

THE ORIFLAMME'S PASSENGERS.—Yesterday afternoon, a caravan of two cayuse ponies, a lot of traps and cooking utensils, accompanied by a dozen or so of Chinamen, arrived overland from Rainier. The Chinamen were passengers by the Oriflamme, from San Francisco; the rest of the caravan was raised on the banks of the Columbia. We gathered from a few remarks dropped by one of the parties, that these Celestials are not as yet strongly impressed in favor of the Oregon modes of transportation.

NEW STAGE LINE FROM DALLES TO BOISE.—We have information from a reliable source, that Messrs. Joe. Teal, [illegible] and others will, in the Spring, put on [illegible] between the Dalles and Boise city [illegible] to connect with the overland stage [illegible] and the terminus of the [illegible]. [illegible] POLK AND YAMHILL.—We learn that [illegible] Polk county is suffering for want of fodder, and [illegible] are dying. Farmers express the usual determination [illegible] "not be catched this way next year." Our informant [illegible] says that Mr. N[illegible] regrets that he didn't ship some timothy hay or corn fodder from New York, [illegible] of the corn shellers, horse pitchforks and Sorghum mills, for which he has no use.

FREIGHTING ON SLEIGHS.—Capt. Turnbull informs us that freight between this city and Vancouver is being carried on sleighs, crossing the Columbia river on the ice.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mr. W. Jackson of this city has received a letter from M. G. Sharpe of Plainfield, Will county, Ill., making inquiries concerning a man named Wm. C. Bowring. It states that Bowring settled near Portland some fifteen years ago, was an unmarried man and owned land one mile from the city. The last time his friends heard from him was in 1859, when a letter was received from him stating that he was then in San Francisco, at a Cold Water Institution, receiving treatment for a disease of the head. The writer supposes that he died soon after writing the letter referred to. Any person knowing the facts will confer a favor by addressing M. G. Sharpe, as above.

WAGON SMASHED.—Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to an express wagon started from the corner of Front and Morrison and ran up the latter street to the corner of Third, where in consequence of bad judgment on the part of the horse the vehicle collided with a tree, and a smash was the result.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action and free from all injurious properties.

DR. C. W. COOL, DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold, it makes the plate twice as strong and one third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. This new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, December 31 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhea, dysentery and the prevailing fevers consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters.—Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

Just Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain setting in upon your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of your disease, which is fast running into Consumption. HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] effects which must be [illegible] or witnessed [illegible] they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the [illegible] influence. In the convalescent stages of all [illegible] it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Origin of Wine.

A SONG—FROM A GERMAN LEGEND—BY JOHN G. SAXE

Ye friends of good cheer, I pray you give ear;
I sing of Old Noah who planted the vine
But first, if you please, our thirst to appease,
Let's drink to his health in a bumper of wine

When the Deluge was o'er, and good father Noah
Sat moping one day in the shade of a tree,
An angel came near, and thinking it queer,
Said, "Tell me, I pray, what the matter may be!"

Says Noah, "I'm curst with a horrible thirst,
So painful, indeed, I am ready to sink,
There is plenty to eat, I have no lack of meat,
But, sir, on my soul, I have nothing to drink."

"See, on every side," the angel replied,
"There is water enough in both river and rill
Your fever to slake—not to mention the lake,
And many a fountain that flows from the hill."

Says Noah, "I know the waters still flow,
But the Deluge has ruined the flood for drink;
So many bad men were soaked in it then,
The water still tastes of the sinners I think!"

"It can't be denied," the angel replied,
"There's something of reason in what you have said;
Since the water is bad, 'tis fitting you had
A good wholesome tipple to drink instead."

So flying away, the very next day
The angel came back with a handful of seeds,
And taught the good man the properest plan
[illegible] ating and hoeing, and killing the weeds.

And what color and shape! 'tis the beautiful grape!
In [illegible] of purple they hang from the vine;
And these being pressed—it is easily guessed,
Old Noah thenceforward drank nothing but wine.

So, a cup are we [illegible] to the man of our heart,
Old Noah, the primitive grower of wine,
And one brimming co[illegible] fill it quite up)
To the angel who gave [illegible] the seed of the vine!

[illegible] Reminiscence of the Lower Pacific Coast

A correspondent of the Bulletin, writing from Santa Barbara (Cal.) furnishes the following interesting reminiscences:

Every one who has read Mexican history is familiar with Friar Gage's Survey of the West Indies, the first edition of which was published in London in 1648, and a hundred times afterwards in various languages, even down to 1844. This old fellow was a Friar of the English Dominicans, and was obliged to make himself scarce there about the year 1625, as he was stubborn on religion, [illegible] off to Spain, where he was [illegible] by the brotherhood with much eclat and [illegible] Padre Thomas de Londres. Gage being an unquiet, curious customer, his convent induced him to join one of their brigades going to Mexico, in which country he duly arrived, was the first Englishman who lived in the interior of New Spain [illegible] 1650, and where, and in Guatemala, he resided and traveled about for some [illegible]. His account of those early times in geography, and the customs and habits of the Spanish Americans and the conquered Indians, as they lived 100 years after the conquest of Cortez, is [illegible] but the map he annexed for his book did not include California, only coming to Sinaloa and going to Panama.

[illegible] charge as cure for five years of the [illegible] near Guatemala City, called to this day, [illegible] in and Mexico, the old sinner says: "And here I had occasion to get more wealth and money than any one who had lived there before me, for, the first year of my abiding there it pleased God to send one of the Plagues of Egypt which was of locusts." These committed great devastations throughout that whole country and Mexico, and caused a great famine among the [illegible] people. In the next year following (1632) all that country (the Alturas of that province, near the Pacific, which the people have always occupied and still do to 1567) was generally infested with a kind of contagious sickness almost as infectious as the plague, and which they called Tabardillo, and was a fever in the very inward parts and bowels, which scarce continued to the seventh day, but commonly took them off from the world to the grave the third or fifth day. The filthy [illegible] and stench which came from those who lay sick of this disease was enough to infect the rest of the house and all who came to see them, rotting their very mouths and tongues and [illegible] them as black as a coal before they died. Very few Spaniards took it, but the Indians of the towns and country were generally attacked. It was [illegible] to have come with the locusts from [illegible] uplands) and to have spread from town to [illegible] till it came to Guatemala and went [illegible] were, from Mexico down all o[illegible] the [illegible] country. "In Mexico and Pinola I [illegible] old and young over 196, which brought unto me in less than half an year a goodly £100." He adds: "There were great floods and inundations of rain, which destroyed many poor cottages of I[illegible], and such fiery thunderbolts and lightning [illegible] was known, and the next year (1633) there were [illegible] numbers of earthquakes in [illegible] without much damage done; [illegible] in the kingdom of Peru a whole city called Truxillo was swallowed up by the earth, which [illegible] and almost all the people were lost while they were at church."

The [illegible] friar turned the pestilence to such profitable account that he got something like $10,000 in gold, pearls, and joes and ducats, and [illegible] and several big pearls; and he had lived afterwards with much fat living, and the lower quality always took off their hats to him and [illegible] his hands and the higher people had him in much honor, and the brethren, his superiors, often consulted him in matters of weighty [illegible], so that he was finally made, nilly willy, Pr[illegible] of Amatitlan.

THE PADRE RETURNS TO ENGLAND.

But [illegible] things causing satiety and so fermenting for [illegible], Gage determined to make his secret way out of those Spanish lands and escape into his own country. This thing he did do "on the sly," by the Nicaragua, Cost Rica, Panama and Porto Bello, and so to Havana, and, being thus on his way to old Spain, his ship was taken off certain small keys or calos and islands by a pirate craft, commanded by a mulatto thief, who [illegible] him of his great parish gains, until he had only enough left to buy himself decent new vestments when he got to Cadiz with some small sums of money! In Spain Master Gage's conscience was still in much tumult, and he began to quarrel with his padre's white habit and everything in the Catholic Church or Popish Spain, and finally [illegible] self out from among that wicked people, and took shipping and finally arrived in his own [illegible] paradise of London, near the time one Oliver Cromwell was riding about among that pi[illegible] posed people, diligently engaged in chopping off live Lords' heads and breaking saints' [illegible], and hotly hunting out all Papists, Quakers and Baptists. Here his reverence foreswore his faith though one of the Gages was a Sir John and high Catholic, and gave the Keeper of the Com[illegible] much treacherous spy's knowledge of the [illegible] and the ports and forts and arsenals, and of their inner wealthy parts, which Hernan Cortes had over me, which set "old Nolly's" [illegible], for he took a chance shortly after, under one Admiral Penn, "to nip," and got the [illegible] of Jamaica, etc. For all this base ingratitude to his old Spanish customers, he was [illegible] by the next Ke[illegible]per—Charles II.—Chaplain to General Fairfax and rector of a [illegible] parish in the county of Kent, and it is said the old sinner even got married, and, as some of the books have it, his friar's chickens live as [illegible] to this day.

HIS BOOK.

But at any rate, he wrote a book, which was [illegible] by one "M. Clark for J. Nicholson, at the King's Arms in Little Britain," London, reaching a fourth edition, revised by the author in 1699, then an old man. This is a celebrated old book; the first edition was in 1648, and the 1699 one [illegible] a 12mo of some 500 pages. It had an [illegible] run in those days, and as we have said [illegible] its way into every European language, being in [illegible] twelve collections of travels, and its effect was most telling on the Spanish colonial and English and colonial adventure. It is quaintly and well written, and in a very bilious, [illegible] style, and has, we have no doubt, as many lies as truths. The Spanish ambassador in London got vexed about it; so did the Pope and the College of Cardinals. It was put on the Index P[illegible] Exrom. Damnata. The English Catholics [illegible] him as an apostate; the Grand Provincials of the White Friars in Mexico and Guatemala, and the Grand Inquisitor, invited the late Friar Th[illegible] again to visit those charming countries; but the Rev. Rector of Kent shook his head, and enjoyed his bacon and greens and hop beer, and was buried at last in his own north country of old England. In consequence of all this noise the book for long years, from being so well advertised, sold like hot loaves, and is diligently [illegible] by men of history and curious quidnuncs who dwell in small lodges and narrow streets of [illegible], to this very day; and it has been the [illegible] of much bloodshed among men calling them[illegible] Christians, and helped materially to [illegible] political changes in all the territories be[illegible] the Gulf of Mexico and Cape Horn.

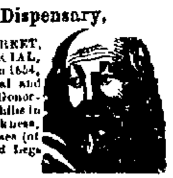
Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppression, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, to which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in [illegible] diseases from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely d[illegible], finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

R. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg, JOHN H. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

If faithfully used according to directions will cure every case of Diabetes, and greatly mitigate the troublesome effects caused by a relaxation of the outlet of the bladder. It is a most successful remedy for Gravel and other diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, and for Female Diseases is unequaled. The Catholicon uniformly cures Prolapsus Uteri, Whites, all Irregularities of the Monthly Turns, Suppression, Incontinence of Urine, Bloating and Dropsical Swellings, and all Diseases of Pregnancy. The specific action of this medicine is immediate and certain upon the Uterine and Abdominal Muscles and Ligaments; restoring them to as healthy a state as those of childhood and youth, so that patients who have used the Graefenberg Company's Uterine Catholicon cannot sufficiently express their gratitude for the relief afforded.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motive; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs; languishing feelings, loss of muscular power; nervousness; irritability; cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption; short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the mind; loss of memory; nightly emissions; colorless; slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptom. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights and days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to assume sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither you fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs. Cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated, show a record unsurpassed by any hospital in the world, and the success that has invariably marked the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that these poisonous drugs, by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be,—Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skilful and and faithful nurses.

To Country Invalids.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation free.

Medical and Surgical Institute,
No. 536 Washington Street,

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you [illegible] have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.
